RECENT IMPORTANT PUBLICATION.

THE ECLECTIC SYSTEM OF PENMANSHIP,

EMBRACING

The Eclectic Exercise-Book; Eclectic Copy-Books; Hand-Book of Eclectic Penmanship; and Eclectic Writing-Cards.

I. THE EXERCISE-BOOK

Contains a variety of exercises especially designed to develop the different movements, and so arranged as to give as much or as little practice on each exercise as may be desired, without the aid of extra paper. It is a little larger than the Copy-Books, and has a strong cover, in order that the Copy-Book may be placed within it.

II. COPY-BOOKS.

No. 1.	No. 5, Boys.	No. 7, (Book of Forms.)
No. 2.	No. 5, Girls.	No. 7, Girls.
No. 3.	No. 6, Boys.	No. 8, (Variety of Capitals.)
No. 4.	No. 6, Girls.	No. 8, Girls.

Also a Primary Book, containing all the letters and figures, designed to be written with a lead-pencil during the second year of school life. Each letter is given separately and of large size; the object being to teach the form of the letter.

GENERAL FEATURES.

1. The SIMPLEST, most legible, and business-like style of capitals and small letters is adopted as the standard.
2. Each letter is given separately at first, and then in combination.
3. The analysis is simple, and indicated in every letter when first presented.
4. Explanations are clear, concise, and complete, and are given on the cover of each book, and not over and around the copy.
5. The order of arrangement is more complete, and the gradation of copies more natural and progressive than in any others.
6. Numbers 5 Boys, 6 Boys, 7 Boys, and 8 Boys are duplicated for Girls, the copies being the same, but in smaller hand-writing.

Within two years from the time of their first publication, the Eclectic Copy-Books were adopted for the public schools of more than Three Hundred Cities and Towns, and for a great number of private schools, academies, and commercial colleges.

III. WRITING-CARDS.

A Novel and Attractive Feature.

The Eclectic Writing-Cards comprise 72 Numbers on 36 Cards. The Cards are each 9 by 13 inches in size, and have a loop attached for suspending them on the walls of the school-room.

Each Number presents but one Letter or Principle.

The first twenty-six Cards present each a capital letter on one side, and a small letter on the reverse. Figures, movements, etc., are presented on the remainder of the Cards.

The letters are white on a black ground, and are of a larger size than is usually employed in Writing Charts. They can be easily read and studied at a distance of thirty to fifty feet.

For convenience in instructing classes, a description of each letter is given on its Card. It is confidently believed that Teachers will find these Cards by far

The most Beautiful, Useful, and Practical Aids

In teaching this important branch of education, yet published. They are well executed, neat, tasty, and so simple in design, that any Teacher can use them to advantage.

The thirty-six Cards are put up in a neat box, for convenience in handling, and for their better preservation when not in use.

IV. HAND-BOOK.

The Hand-Book of Eclectic Penmanship is a small 12mo. volume of 96 pages, published in attractive form. It contains the true plan of instruction; a complete description and analysis of movement and of the letters; and the substance of what is required in teaching Penmanship.
